

Techniquet Workshop

Members of the Unit took part in workshops in collaboration with Techniquet in January and March 2016.

Working with Techniquet staff they designed interactive activities to demonstrate some of the research outputs of the Unit to the public.

These ideas were then developed to give three entertaining activities for use in future public engagement events.

